

John O'Byrne

Vice President of New York Life Insurance Company. John is Department Head for the Corporate Office of Business Conduct. He has been responsible for the business conduct program at New York Life and all of its domestic and international subsidiaries since 1998.

John joined New York Life in 1964 – has worked in actuarial, product development, individual life, individual annuity, mutual funds, systems and corporate compliance departments. He was chief compliance officer for New York Life's broker dealers from 1988 to 1998.

John has served as a witness in litigation, speaker at securities and financial planning seminars; Chairman Emeritus of the International Association for Financial Planning Compliance Advisory Council; published articles on policies and procedures to prevent violations of Insider Trading laws. John is a director of the Ethics and Compliance Officer Association and a member of the Advisory Board for the American College Center for Ethics in Financial Services. John received a B.S. degree from Fordham University and an M.B.A. from St. John's University.

April 26, 2006