

Joe M. Olivarez Jr.,

- Baker Hughes Incorporated (BHI) since July 2002.
- BHI Vice President, Enterprise Security & Crisis Management (Western Hemisphere) where he is responsible for the security of all personnel, assets and information maintained and utilized for BHI in the Western Hemisphere
 - Prior to Vice President he was the Director of Security Global Operations where he was involved in international risk assessments, business planning, strategy development and standardizing procedures for how BHI operated their security function.
 - Joined BHI the Manager of Investigations: He was the primary focal point and lead of all investigations initiated or assigned to the Corporate Security/Crisis Management Department Globally.
 - Investigated allegations of violations of our Business Code of Conduct and criminal activities that could adversely affect our people, assets, confidential information and the Company business image and reputation. Typical investigations in this category include but are not limited to theft, fraud, workplace violence, conflicts of interest, kickbacks, and loss of intellectual property. In addition, personnel assigned to investigations are involved in litigation support, due diligence and background investigation of senior level international personnel.
- Olivarez was recruited from a Security Management Consulting Company where he was the VP of Investigations. Serving a variety of Fortune 100 companies to small business. The businesses spanned the industry spectrum and included but were not limited to Oil & Gas, High Tech, Entertainment, Transportation, Financial and Waste Management. Cases worked resulted in the county and federal prosecution of a significant number of subject's, recoveries of million of dollars and asset forfeitures that mitigated the client losses.
- Prior to Consulting Olivarez spent six years with NASA - Johnson Space Center where he was the Lead Criminal Investigator/Special Agent assigned to the Government Security Division. The position required constant communication and coordination with the NASA Office of Inspector General where significant cases related to contract fraud, government bribery and kickback/bid rigging cases were initiated. Olivarez was the Lead Special Agent assigned to government sabotage and espionage cases. In addition, all undercover operations involving internal and external operations were managed by Olivarez and his assigned Agents.
- Olivarez began his career in 1988 with General Dynamics –Fort Worth Division, an Air Force Defense Contractor.Olivarez earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice with an emphasis in Legal Research from Stephen F. Austin State University.
- Olivarez earned a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Houston Executive Management Program
- In 2005 he was selected and attended the BHI Thunderbird Executive Education Business Leadership Program.
- He is a member of ASIS International (Local Chapter Chair of the Legislative Committee), Overseas Advisory Security Council (OSAC), INFRGARD and the Energy Security Council.